

Naming and tackling system barriers

Leadership exercised primarily within organisations

Governance and accountability distanced from local people

Exhausted front line teams focused on managing demand and risk

Power, resources and decision-making concentrated in statutory services

Community organisations operating at the margins on short-term funding

Purpose and outcomes defined within services and sectors